BRIEF STATEMENT

Coláiste Naomh Cormac is a co-educational school nestled in the country setting of the Slieve Bloom mountains, under the patronage of and management of Laois Offaly Education and Training Board. In Coláiste Naomh Cormac, we aim to develop the full potential of every student in a learning environment where fairness, understanding, success and discipline are pursued. This policy is based on the school's fundamental aim to foster in students an attitude of learning and to encourage them to strive for excellence.

Transition Year

Transition Year is a unique one-year programme. We have created a multifaceted course that promotes the personal, social, vocational, sporting, creative and educational development of students. Our aim is to foster the holistic and balanced development of our students. We endeavour to prepare them for their role as responsible members of society using their newly acquired life skills. Students engage in a full academic programme and also complete two periods of work experience, which takes place every Tuesday. Throughout the year our students are actively involved in community projects.
