BRIEF STATEMENT

St Muredach's College is an all-boys secondary school on the banks of the River Moy in Ballina, County Mayo. It was founded in 1906 to provide a Catholic education for boys in the Killala Diocese.

St. Muredach's College aim to develop the academic, cultural, moral, spiritual and sporting aspects of all our students. They are proud of their strong academic tradition. They have a comprehensive Special Educational Needs programme that ensures that all their students are given the opportunity to develop their skills and become active participants in the life of our school. A broad range of subjects is taught and a balance is maintained between academic, scientific, spiritual, artistic and technological education.
